Bat Monitoring Projects

Bat Monitoring - <https://www.batmonitoring.org> – are asking for anyone with bat monitoring data to get involved with their project.

Action: If any partners have similar projects/platforms/databases that BLE are not aware, please share with us. We can promote in our partner updates, and build a central repository of information, hopefully to share on our website.

News from BatLife Europe

Bat of the Year 2026 -2027

We are looking for a successor for the Greater Mouse-eared Bat as “Bat of the Year” for the next period, 2026-2027!

Shortlist

As in previous years, a shortlist has been drawn up by our Board of Trustees, who, after much discussion, selected the following three species:

- Northern Bat (Eptesicus nilssonii)
- Schreibers’ Bent-winged Bat (Miniopterus schreibersii)
- Leisler’s Bat (Nyctalus leisleri).

Voting

Voting will be closed at the end of August. Each BLE partner is allowed to collect votes within their organisation in whatever way they like – be it via a public vote or internal choice. You have about two months to choose the favourite of your organisation!

Each partner has one vote, which can be cast via the link below.

Please note, this link is only for submitting your overall choice, and should not be shared publicly:

Partner Invoice Payments

Many thanks to all partners who have paid the latest invoice for the 2025 Partner Fees. We’ll be sending reminders soon to those who haven’t yet paid. If any partner is unable to pay for reasons of low budget etc., please do let us know so we can offer assistance.

Online Partner Meeting – Late 2025

BatLife Europe will be organising an online partner meeting later this year. We will send a date picker poll in a future update, to gauge which date will be best for partners.

Webinars

All our past webinars are available on our Webinars page, including the recent talk from Emma Boston on the Leisler’s bat.

Action: If anyone is willing to give a talk on a bat themed subject later this year, please do get in touch.
